

YOUR MONEY MATTERS!

Whether you're in school, near retirement or somewhere in between, your money matters! Consumers make decisions about earning, saving and spending daily. That's why it's important to understand how to successfully manage personal finances and plan for the future.

WHAT'S OKMM?

Oklahoma Money Matters (OKMM) is a personal finance education program that empowers Oklahomans to make positive financial choices.

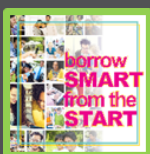

An initiative of the Oklahoma College Assistance Program, an operating division of the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, OKMM offers a variety of services to educate students, adults and families about basic money management, saving, consumer credit, student loan repayment and financial aid.

WHO DOES OKMM SERVE?

- Higher Education Campuses
- Students
- Parents
- K-12 Educators
- Community Organizations
- Businesses and Employers

Borrow Smart

Borrow Smart from the Start is a quick reference guide that helps students understand federal loans, choose only what they need, and plan ahead for successful repayment.

Money Management

Your Money Matters guides for high school and college students, low-income populations and adults are available at OklahomaMoneyMatters.org.

Financial Education Workshops and Webinars

We work with higher education campuses and K-12 educators to develop and customize interactive presentations covering budgeting and saving, credit, student loan management, identity theft prevention and more.

Financial Literacy Modules

OKMM offers learning modules aligned with all 14 financial literacy standards required in Oklahoma. Share these with your students to help them check off this important graduation requirement!

Web and Newsletter Content

We can help you prepare content and tools for your website and organizational newsletter. Take advantage of OCAP's Financial Friday and OKMM Outlook newsletters, Make It Count education webinars, and engage us to develop website text that's specific to your organization's needs.
